

The Contemporary Europe Research Centre & the Europe Social Club
presents

A JEAN MONNET CENTRE FOR EXCELLENCE EVENT

EUROPE IN FLUX: THE CHANGING FACE OF CONTEMPORARY EUROPE

An interdisciplinary postgraduate workshop

1 December 2004

CERC, The University of Melbourne
Level 2, 234 Queensberry Street
Carlton, VIC 3052

8.30-9.15am - Registration

9.15-9.30am - Welcome
Dr. Philomena Murray, Director, Contemporary Europe Research Centre

9.30-11.00am Session One: Issues of Migration, Asylum and the Nation
Chair: Anthony Phillips, CERC Fellow, The University of Melbourne

- Adam Berryman (The University of Melbourne)
European Union Asylum Regime
 - Tony Wilson (The University of Auckland)
Handling the Headscarf Issue: The French Headscarf Ban in a European Context
 - Michael Kelly (The University of Melbourne)
Italy Rejects Her Past: Revisionists and the Anti-Fascist Foundations of the Italian Republic
-

11.00-11.30am - MORNING TEA (PROVIDED)

11.30-1.00pm Session Two: An Enlarged Europe: Current Issues
Chair: To be confirmed

- Alex Jereb (Macquarie University)
Theories of Transition: an Attempted Classification
- Desmond Brennan (Curtin University)
The European Union's Impact on Ethnic Relations in Prospective Member States in Central and Eastern Europe
- Fiona Machin (The University of Melbourne)
A Catalyst for Change? The EU and the Cyprus Issue

1.00-1.55pm - LUNCH (NOT PROVIDED)

2.00-3.30pm - Session Three: Discussing Europe's Role

Chair: Paul Strickland, Counsellor, Delegation of the European Commission to Australia and New Zealand

- Patrick Pepla Kimunguyi (LaTrobe University)
ACP-EU Economic Partnership Agreements: Regional Implications
 - Iona Annett (The University of Melbourne)
The European Constitution 2004: An Assessment.
 - Kasia Lach (The University of Melbourne)
The "Double Alienation" Problem: Assessing the Impact of the Recent Enlargement and the Draft Constitution on Central and Eastern Europe
-

3.30-3.45pm - AFTERNOON TEA (PROVIDED)

3.45-5.30pm - Session Four: European Identity, Society and Culture

Chair: Associate Professor Aleksandar Pavkovic, Macquarie University

- Peter Barrer (Monash University)
Local Texts with a Global Melody: Analysing Slovak Popular Music
 - Aurelia Satcau (Monash University)
The Transitional/Transactional: Eastern-Europe After 1990
 - Eva Polonska-Kimunguyi (The University of Melbourne)
Culture, Identity and Trade: Regulating Television in the European Union
 - Dora Horvath (The University of Melbourne)
Rediscovering or Reinventing the European Demos: Shifting the Elitist View on citizenship and Identity
-

5.30-7.30pm – Reception hosted by the Europe Social Club.

The Contemporary European Studies Association of Australia (CESAA) will award the winners of the annual 2004 Europe Essay Competition.

The Europe Social Club (CERC Postgraduate Group) would like to thank the following for their financial contribution and support of this workshop:

National Europe
Centre ANU

